Reefworld Aquarium Hervey Bay

On the Beach, Dayman Park, Pulgul St, Urangan

Located right on the beautiful foreshore of Hervey Bay is where you'll find this iconic attraction that's been operating for over 40 years. Reefworld Aquarium Hervey Bay was Australia's first all-natural aquarium, using only sand filtered sea water and natural sunlight, making it one of the very few natural aquariums found throughout the world! We are very proud of our living coral display, all from the waters of Hervey Bay.

Bring your family and enjoy our natural living coral displays and get up close and personal with our Green Sea Turtles. Explore our tanks filled with colourful tropical fish, large reef fish and all the small reef dwellers hiding amongst the corals. You can also experience what marine life feels like to touch and participate in daily feedings. A special experience 'Swim with Turtles' is available, no diving experience is needed and your snorkeling gear is provided.

Remember to bring your camera to capture your special moments, and visit the gift shop for that special souvenir. If you're hungry, why not pop next door to our licensed Waterfront Restaurant for lunch or a Devonshire Tea.

Urangan Pier

At the Urangan end of the Esplanade, Urangan

Hervey Bay's Urangan Pier is a 'must-visit' stunning 868-metre-long structure that extends into the pristine waters of the Great Sandy Strait.

The Pier is an iconic link to Hervey Bay's past. Built in the early 1900's as a deep-water facility for the export of sugar, timber and coal, it was a vital link between land and sea, railway lines and shipping lanes.

Today, the Pier is known for offering a perfect spot for fishing, observing marine and bird life, or just a great place for a walk. It's fully lit, so you can enjoy it day or night, but going at dusk will allow you to take in one of Hervey Bay's breath-taking sunsets.

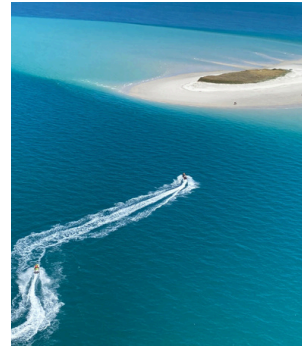

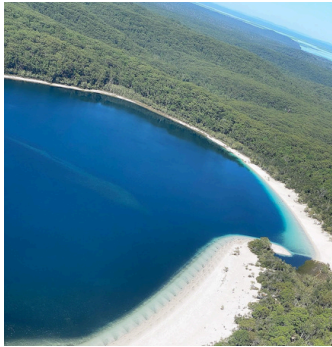

Visitors can also enjoy the vibrant Pier Precinct with markets on Wednesday and Saturday mornings. Visit the Hervey Bay Hat Co., enjoy a coffee from the Hatch, a haircut at Hervey Bay barbers, or grab a bite at Migaloos Seafood and Ice-Creamery, Sundaes at the Pier Ice-cream Cafe, Kelz Bakery or RJ's Beach Cafe.

It's an ideal spot for a relaxing time and a must-visit destination in Hervey Bay.
